

Become a UKPHR Specialist Assessor

Help shape the future of public health

UKPHR is looking for experienced public health consultants - active or recently retired - to join our team of Specialist Registration by Portfolio Assessment (SRbPA) assessors. It's a chance to support the next generation of public health leaders, contribute to your profession, and develop your skills, on a flexible basis.

What you'll do

- › Review pre-applications and full portfolios from candidates
- › Work with a co-assessor and moderator to reach assessment decisions
- › Present your findings at Registration Panel meetings
- › Give applicants constructive, honest feedback
- › Complete assessment paperwork accurately and on time

What you'll get

- › Comprehensive training and ongoing support from UKPHR and our QA moderators
- › A supportive network of experienced public health professionals
- › CPD opportunities through portfolio review and peer working
 - › The role is voluntary for now, but there is the possibility of payment per assessment in future

What's involved

- › A two-day training session before you start
- › At least 3 pre-applications and 2 ongoing portfolios a year, seen through to completion
- › At least two Registration Panels and one development session a year

Who we're looking for

- › Registered as a Public Health Specialist with UKPHR, GMC, or GDC (or within the last 5 years if retired)
- › At least 2 years' experience at consultant level in public health
- › Skilled in assessing evidence of competence and familiar with specialist registration standards
- › Committed to independence, confidentiality, impartiality, and equality, diversity and inclusion
- › Retired professionals welcome, provided you maintain CPD and attend development sessions

How to apply

Send your CV and a short statement covering your motivation and how you meet the criteria above to register@ukphr.org

If you have any questions, you're welcome to email us on the above email too.
